What does a yearbook mean to you? To those who helped to make it, it symbolizes the work and thought they donated through the year. To the men who oversaw the production of the book, it symbolizes a never-ending headache. And to you, a member of the student body, it symbolizes a year of friends, classes, decisions, tests, activities, and growth. To all of us, it is a book full of memories, some happy, some not so happy. And when years from now we find ourselves in a reminiscent mood, it will bring back to us all those seemingly forgotten days. In these thoughtfull moments we shall trace each day, with its busy schedule, private thoughts, and knowledge.

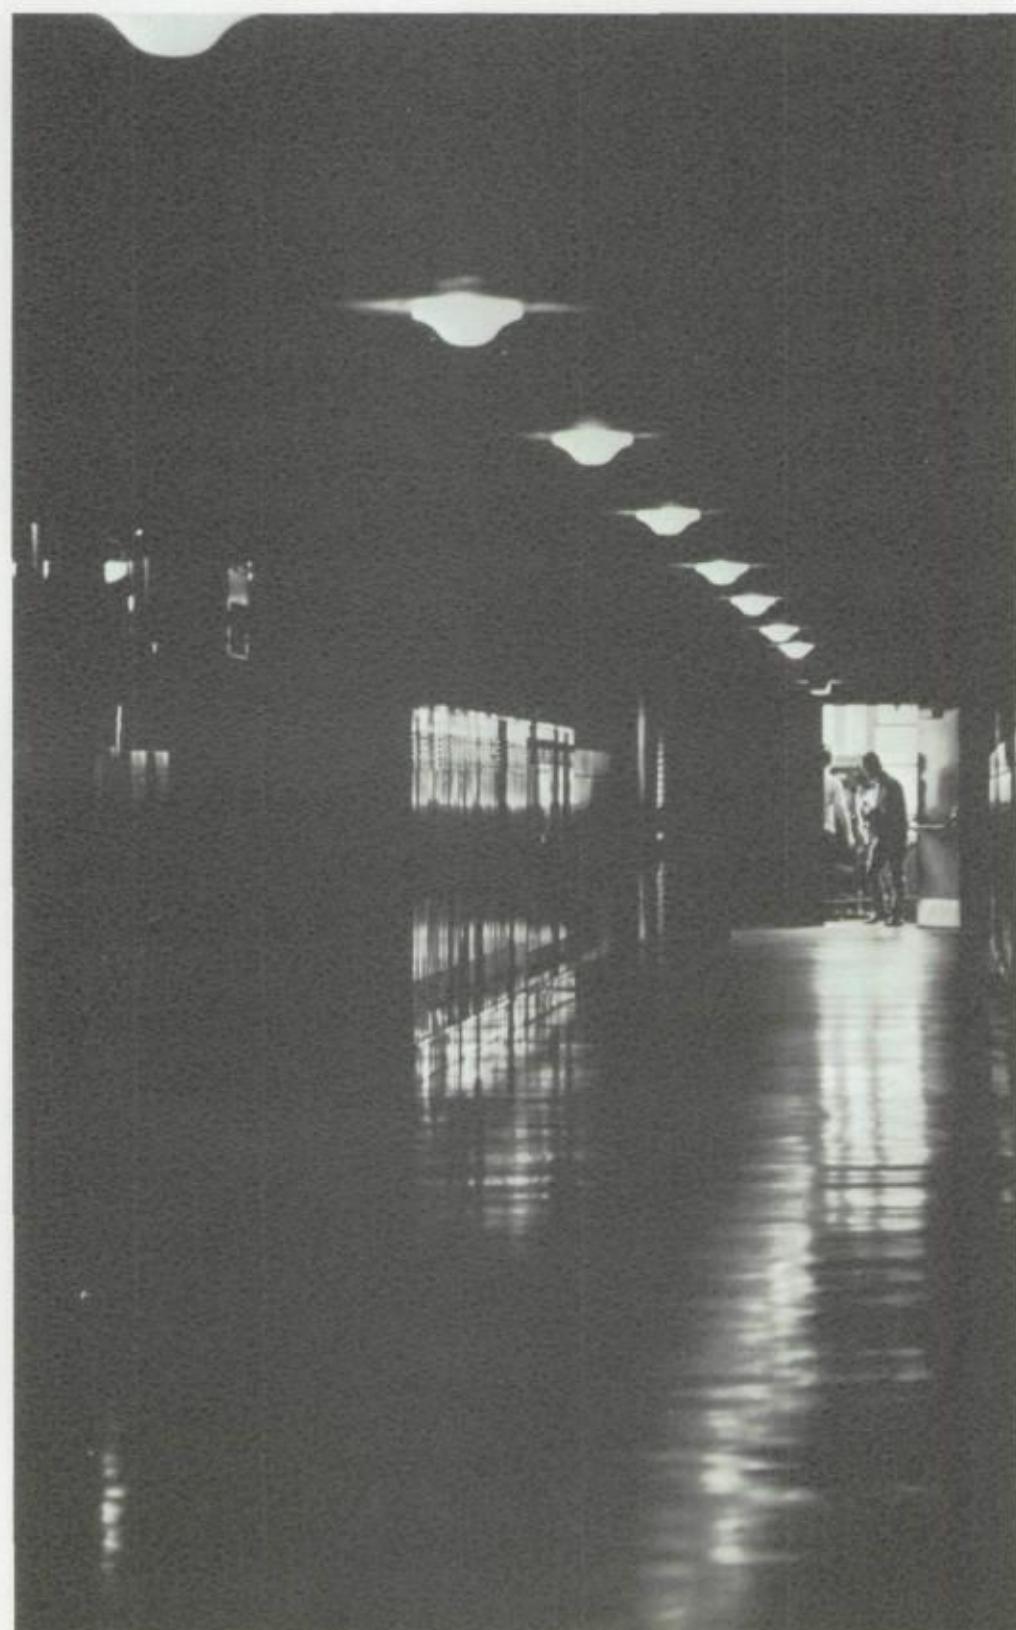

It is the goal of the yearbook staff that the pages of this book, when opened before you, focus on a day at Cranberry—a day made up of all those things which are a part of your life and will be fond memories in your future.

JUNIOR
HIGH
STUDENT COUNCIL

Wes Davis, Chairman
Lynnanne Carlson, Vice-Chairman
Susie Ziegler, Recorder

The Junior High Council is the branch that serves the junior high students.

Mr. David Nicol, Advisor

The Student Council is made up of one representative and one alternate from each homeroom, representing all the students. The council's main objective is to govern the student body with approval from the administration. It sponsors various social events, assemblies, and buses to away athletic events.

Shirley Allison, President
Diane Miller, Secretary
Dean Himes, Vice-President
Mr. Jack Ward, Advisor
Absent: Peggy Wimer, Treasurer

THESPIANS

Behind the scrim, a transparent piece of stage equipment, we see the silhouettes of the dramatic Thespians. This group, under the supervision of its director, Mr. Brian Thomas, is composed of students who have repeatedly displayed their theatrical ability. Entry to the Thespians is by point accumulation through the participation in play activities.

JUNIOR HIGH DRAMA CLUB

Penny Culbertson, President
Rick Harry, Vice-President
Judy Smith, Secretary-Treasurer

The Junior High Drama Club, made up entirely of ninth-grade students, has a dual purpose—enjoyment coupled with learning. They are planning a junior high assembly and a grade-school play, both of which will be under student direction.

PEP BAND

No basketball game would be complete without the Pep Band. During half-times they lead us in our National Anthem, along with supplying music for entertainment.

VISUAL AIDES

Whenever there are movies to be shown, the members of Visual Aides, along with their advisor Mr. Irwin, are always there to help out.

Clubs

VARSITY CLUB

The main objective of the Varsity C Club is the raising of funds by selling pop and candy at the basketball games. This money is used by the Athletic Association toward Varsity Jackets.

KEY CLUB

Advisor: Mr. Smith; Officers: Gary Smith, President, Ed Pokoj, Vice-President, Dave Cox, Secretary, Dave Somers, Treasurer, Denzil Cauvel, Lieutenant Governor, Dave Meade, Chaplin

Key Club, sponsored by Kiwanis Club, is a very worthwhile, non-profit organization for boys with a 3.0 average. Their major duty is to serve the community and develop leadership. These boys are to be commended for the tremendous job throughout the year.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Advisor: Mr. Fish; Officers: Ruth Morris, President, Marie Crowther, Vice-President, Debbie Blum, Secretary, Dara Apel, Treasurer

FTA, under the guidance of Mr. Fish, is an organization which helps prospects of the teaching field become accustomed to the chills and thrills of a teaching career.

FRENCH I

The French Club is composed of French students who are interested in studying French culture. Each year this group participates in one major social event. Advisor: Mrs. Helen Black

FRENCH II--III-IV

LIBRARY CLUB

The purpose of school is to educate oneself; what better place to do this than in the school library? The members of the Library Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. McLane, assist the students in finding their desired materials.

Mrs. Virginia McLane
Assistant Librarian

USHERS' CLUB

Throughout the year the ushers have been very helpful to the supporters of social events at Cranberry. We thank Betty Allaman, chairman, and Mrs. Ward for sponsoring this club.

Advisor: Mrs. Mohr; President: Sally Hazlett; Vice-President: Jerrilyn Hatch; Secretary: Kathy Erwin; Treasurer: Roberta Pritchard

SENIOR FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Because the woman's place is in the home, the Future Homemakers prepare these young girls to be successful housewives. Cooking and sewing are just a few of their requirements.

This year the Pep Club did much to instill school spirit with their programs and imaginative signs. They are under the leadership of Denise Watson and Marie Crowther.

DRILL TEAM

Advisor: Miss Crawford; Head: Bobbie Morrison

Under the direction of Miss Crawford, the Drill Team has performed many unique routines at our basketball games.

WRESTLING

Dick Graham, Captain

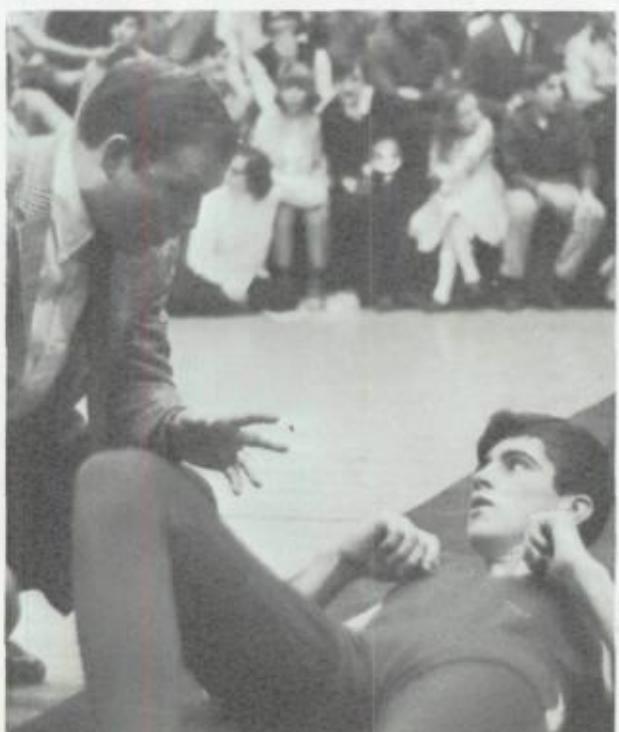

Varsity

In the first year of Section II Wrestling, our team made a fine showing with an overall record of 6-8. The seniors, Derwin Wenner, Sam McDowell, Dave Cox, John Somers, John Sharpe, Dick Graham, and Art Show added many points to the team score. Also to be commended is Clark Pearson, who has done a fine job as head manager for the past four years.

On Senior and Parents Appreciation Night, each of the mothers was honored with a red rose. Mr. and Mrs. Show display their excitement as they watch Art pin his opponent in the heavyweight class.
